
Contents

Foreword	iii	3. Places and Trips for Outdoor Recreation	35
List of Tables	v	4. Americans and Their National Parks	41
List of Figures	vi	5. Trends in Time and Money Expenditures	47
		6. Aging and Outdoor Recreation	55
Introduction	1	Appendixes
Summary of Findings	5	A. Statistical Tables	63
Chapters		B. Sampling Error	79
1. Americans and the Outdoors	11	C. Survey Questionnaire	83
2. Examining Outdoor Recreation Activities	17	Reader Comment Sheet	95

List of Tables

Table

1. Outdoor Recreation Involvement by Demographic Characteristic	13
2. Status of Activities: Participation Rates, Choice as Favorites, and Number of Participants	18
3. Activity Participation Trends, 1960 to 1982	19
4. Activity Participation, by Demographic Categories	20
5. Favorite Activities	24
6. Participation in Selected Activities, by Demographic Characteristics	25
7. Annual Volume of Activity Per Participant	28
8. Monthly Volume of Activity, by Season	29
9. Recreation Participation, by Activity and Season	30
10. Percentage Who Gave Selected Reasons for not Engaging in Favorite Activities	31
11. Percentage of Respondents Who Gave Selected Reasons for Enjoying Favorite Activities	32
12. Short-Term Activity Trend Indicators	33
13. Importance of Recreation Areas at Various Distances From Home	35
14. Availability of Yards and Nearby Recreation Areas	36
15. Utilization of Outdoor Recreation Opportunities	36
16. Trips or Outings to Engage in Selected Outdoor Recreation Activities	37
17. Trips for Recreation, by Activity and Length of Trip	37
18. Characteristics of Trips and Outings	38
19. Destination Characteristics of Trips and Outings	38
20. National Park Visits	42
21. Changes in Lifetime Recall of National Park Visits	43
22. Number of National Parks Ever Visited, by Demographic Characteristic	44
23. Maximum Acceptable National Park Entry Fees	45
24. Outdoor Activity Constraints	47
25. Reason for Spending More Time or Less Time on Outdoor Recreation	50
26. Characteristics of Respondents Who Spent Money on Outdoor Recreation	50
27. Reason for Spending a Larger Percentage or a Smaller Percentage of Money on Outdoor Recreation	53
28. Involvement in Outdoor Recreation, by Age Groups	55
29. Reasons for Enjoying Favorite Activities, by Age Groups	56
30. Constraints on Favorite Activities, by Age Groups	56
31. Reasons for Discontinuing a Recreation Activity, by Age Groups	57

List of Tables

Table

32.	Changes in Time and Money Spent for Outdoor Recreation, by Age Groups	57
33.	Club-Sponsored Outdoor Recreation Activities by Respondents Aged 60 and Older	58
34.	Outdoor Recreation Skills and Teaching Activities of Respondents Aged 60 and Older	58
35.	Reasons for Not Teaching Outdoor Skills	58
A-1.	Outdoor Recreation Activities not Listed on Questionnaire or Information Card Booklet, by Annual Participation Rate and Choice as Favorites	63
A-2.	Preferences for Allocating National Park Operating Costs	63
A-3.	Respondent Views on Operating Costs of National Park Campgrounds	64
A-4.	Respondent Views on How to Cover Costs of Special Talks and Exhibits in National Parks	64
A-5.	Respondent Views on How to Cover Costs of Reservation Systems in National Parks	65
A-6.	Respondent Views on How to cover Costs of Rides on Buses or Other Ways of Getting Around in National Parks	65
A-7.	Preference Rankings for "Turning People Away Who Come After a Limit of People are in Park" to Reduce Overcrowding in National Parks	66
A-8.	Preference Rankings for "Letting People Apply in Advance Then Drawing Names" to Allocate Reservations as a Means of Reducing Overcrowding in National Parks	66
A-9.	Preference Rankings for "Taking Reservations on a First-Come, First-Serve Basis" to Reduce Overcrowding in National Parks	67
A-10.	Preference Rankings for "Charging an Extra 5 Dollars Per Adult Visitor" to Reduce Overcrowding in National Parks ..	67
A-11.	Time Expenditure Changes for Outdoor Recreation: Present Compared With Earlier 2 Years	68
A-12.	Estimated Time Expenditure Changes in Outdoor Recreation For Next 2 Years	69
A-13.	Reasons for Spending More Time in Outdoor Recreation	70
A-14.	Reasons for Spending Less Time for Outdoor Recreation	71
A-15.	Reasons Given for Spending a Smaller Percentage of Income for Outdoor Recreation	72
A-16.	Reasons Given for Spending a Larger Percentage of Income on Outdoor Recreation	73
A-17.	Present Money Expenditures for Outdoor Recreation Compared With 2 Years Prior to Interview	74
A-18.	Estimated Changes in Money Expenditures for Outdoor Recreation During Next 2 Years	75
B-1.	Theoretical Standard Errors for Various Size Samples and Estimated Population Proportions	79

List of Figures

Figure

1.	Involvement in Outdoor Recreation, by Age	6
2.	Involvement in Outdoor Recreation, by Sex	7
3.	Involvement in Outdoor Recreation, by Race	7
4.	Involvement in Outdoor Recreation, by Family Income	7
5.	Involvement in Outdoor Recreation, by Education	8
6.	Involvement in Outdoor Recreation, by Number of Cars Owned by Household	9
7.	Involvement in Outdoor Recreation, by Size of Locality of Residence	10
8.	Census Regions	15
9.	Recent and Expected Changes in Time Spent on Outdoor Recreation	47
10.	Average Number of Activities Engaged in by Persons Citing Various Changes in Time Spent on Outdoor Recreation ..	48
11.	Average Annual Number of Activity-Days of Participation by Persons Citing Various Changes in Time Spent on Outdoor Recreation	48
12.	Money Spent for Outdoor Recreation During 12 Months Prior to Interview	51
13.	Purchases for Outdoor Recreation in Prior Year	51
14.	Recent and Expected Changes in Money Spent on Outdoor Recreation	52
15.	Relationship of Recent Change in Time and Money Expenditures for Outdoor Recreation	52